Gentlemen:

In reply to your letter of the 4th instant, you are respectfully informed that the least number of silver dollars coined during any calendar year since 1890 was in 1895, the coinage by Mints being as follows:

San Francisco.....	$400,000.
New Orleans.....	450,000.
Philadelphia	12,880.

Respectfully yours,

Acting Director of the Mint.
